II. Secretary's Report

B. Communication

Intent to retire:

- I received a letter from Paula Rawding with her intent to retire July 1, 2007 and her desire to continue as receptionist/secretary for 32 hours/4 days per week.
- Tom Southworth has a letter of intent to retire and is seeking a reduced contract. I recommend we accept both letters and issue a reduced contract.

Resignations:

- I have received a letter of resignation from Molly Rothermel. It is my understanding that she is relocating. Jan will have more details.
- Joseph Hill, special ed. aide at RJH, has also submitted his resignation.

III. Reports

A. Superintendent

I will update the Board on the fate of several important pieces of legislation including: raising the compulsory age of school attendance from age 16 to 18, the Constitutional amendment concerning school funding and the collective bargaining bill that will require as few as 3 members to form a union, provide an evergreen clause and allow safety issues and numbers of staff to be collective bargaining items.

B. Financial

We will have a discussion concerning the unreserved fund balance.

IV. Unfinished Business

D. Policy KF

We have a couple of sample policies from the attorney for review.

V. Recognition of Visitors

Chris Pollet will attend the board meeting tonight. Chris will discuss the junior high schedule under Jan's 'Principal's report'.
